

ACCO/PHCC Ohio Convention/Expo 2020 Sponsor Opportunities

Dear Industry Partner:

The Air Conditioning Contractors of Ohio and the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Contractors of Ohio are celebrating their 20th Annual Joint Convention & Expo, March 4-6, 2020 at the Sharonville Convention Center in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Each year, the generous support of our partners has provided our Convention and Expo with the means to maintain a high standard of excellence. Through the years, our joint convention has been recognized throughout the industry, both locally and nationally, as one of the best in the nation. We have achieved this goal by providing quality programs, education, networking events and recognition for our members and vendors.

Because we value your contributions, the Convention Committee has developed a variety of sponsorship opportunities designed to showcase your company to the entire Plumbing and HVACR community. This is an ideal marketing opportunity to create relationships by reaching the decision-makers of our industries.

We look forward to talking to you about the best fit for your organization's partnership and thank you in advance for reviewing the enclosed sponsorship opportunities. If you have any questions regarding your level of participation, please do not hesitate to call the Ohio Convention office at 877-553-EXPO.

Sincerely,

Chris Tucker
