2026 Sponsor Opportunities

Celebrating 25 Years of Connecting Ohio's HVACR and Plumbing Industries

Dear Industry Partners:

The Air Conditioning Contractors of Ohio (ACCO) and the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Contractors of Ohio (PHCC Ohio) are proud to celebrate the 25th Annual ACCO/PHCC Ohio Convention & Expo, March 4–5, 2026, at the Cleveland Marriott East in Cleveland, Ohio.

Each year, the generous support of our partners enables us to maintain a high standard of excellence. Over the years, our joint convention has been recognized throughout the industry—both locally and nationally—as one of the best in the country. Together, we have achieved this distinction by providing quality programs, education, networking opportunities, and recognition for our members and vendors.

To honor your continued partnership, the Convention Committee has developed a variety of sponsorship opportunities designed to showcase your company and connect you directly with decision-makers in the HVACR and plumbing industries.

We look forward to discussing the best sponsorship fit for your organization and thank you in advance for reviewing the enclosed opportunities. For questions, please contact the Ohio Convention office at 877-553-EXPO.

Sincerely,

Nate Alwood
Convention Co-Chair, ACCO
